

A Miracle For You: The Discovery that Brings You to What You Want!

A Miracle for You: The Discovery that Brings You to What You Want! is a one-day workshop designed to bring us to that place inside ourselves from which miracles can occur. (The term miracle is not meant to infer the supernatural but rather the extraordinary.) Don't we all believe that that most special thing can somehow happen for ourselves? Whatever is that most special thing for you, it can happen when you let it. We aren't here on this earth to suffer, to despair in misery, or lose hope in desperation. We are here to live, to express joy, and to effortlessly flow in that cord of excitement from where miracles occur. For too long we have been stuck in Plato's cave mistaking the shadow for the sunlight. The sunlight is here. It's real. But you know what--you have got to want it. You have got to want it just as if your life depended on it. "From a certain point onward there is no longer any turning back. That is the point that must be reached."--Franz Kafka (1883-1924). The miracle begins the moment you want it. It simply is a choice.

Come join us in this most extraordinary workshop and experience your miracle every day in every way.
